

Meeting people when they come to the center and saying good bye to people when they are leaving

When people first come inside the center or when you first start talking to someone.

Hello. My name is _____. Welcome to Gyuto Center.

Welcome to Gyuto Center. We're happy you can join us today.

Hello, it's nice to see you again.

Hello, how are you today?

Have you been here before? Do you have any questions?

You can sit anywhere you would like to sit.

The cushions are over there.

There are chairs in the back, if those would be more comfortable for you.

The booklets are on the shelf.

Please ask feel free to ask us questions.

If you need the restrooms, they are back there. (Point toward that door)

During the time when people are at the center

Do you have any questions?

Can I help you with anything?

When people are leaving the center and saying goodbye

Good bye. We're happy you joined us today.

Good bye. Thank you for joining us today.

Good bye. Please feel welcome to come back again.

Good bye. Please feel free to join us for other teachings.

Good bye. Please, have a good trip home.

Good bye. Have a safe trip home.

Good bye. Please drive carefully on your way home.

Good bye. Drive safely.

Good bye. I hope you have a good day.
